BIOGRAPHY

Georgia is a passionate and driven person, who wants to pursue a career in teaching and hopes to focus on improving the literary and language skills of children, whilst hoping to instil confidence in their abilities.

Georgia has a lot of experience teaching children in a range of different ages and abilities. For the past three years, she has been teaching on the online private tutoring platform My Tutor, where she has given lessons from KS2 (Year 5/6) all the way up to A-Level, in English Literature, English Language, Theatre Studies and Latin. She has proven her ability to teach excellently, by improving students' grades by one and sometimes two levels. Georgia creates bespoke lesson plans depending on the student's ability, to assist them with their specific exam board and curriculum, whilst also helping with homework, exam technique and understanding specific content. She is also part of the Schools Programme platform, where she has taught online in schools across the country to help students benefit from private tutoring without the hefty cost. She has delivered over 320 lessons thus far, accumulating over 190 reviews in the process, all of which are 5*, she has proven her ability to improve student's grade boundaries, but also their confidence in their ability to undertake difficult
